Expectations

- An assessment should be given to assess student learning during the designated periods.
- Student and parent contact should be made with any student still in need of support during intervention.
- All students should remain in their designated classrooms and not be sent to other classrooms. Any student roaming campus will be sent home.
- Students remaining on campus after 1:20pm will not be allowed to "roam" campus freely. They must report to the library if they are waiting for transportation pickup or for afterschool practice.
- No student should remain in the counseling office unless they are in a crisis.
- Friday schedule, Students report to campus only if needed. Regular bus schedule.
